

Ballerina Award Winner 2022

Föreningen
Ekonomerna
STOCKHOLMS UNIVERSITET

The Education Committee and Föreningen Ekonomerna presents

Teacher of the year

For showing the most exceptional pedagogical ability

Nick Butler

Nick Butler is awarded this diploma as they are the teacher who the SBS students believe has shown exceptional pedagogical skills and that has contributed to their learning at SBS the most. Nick Butler has achieved this through encouraging students to engage in discussions, creating engaging lectures and showing great preparation in the planning and execution of seminars and lectures.

Ballerina Award Winner 2022

Föreningen
Ekonomerna
STOCKHOLMS UNIVERSITET

The Education Committee and Föreningen Ekonomerna presents

Best teaching adaption

For the best adaptation to the pandemic's impact on teaching

Anselm Schneider

Anselm Schneider is awarded this diploma as they are the teacher who the SBS students believe has shown the best adaptation of their teaching to the pandemic. Anselm has achieved this through making lectures pedagogical and understandable in light of the pandemic's restrictions. Anselm has assured that the hybrid lectures provided the same level of quality and engagement for students regardless of if they attended physically or digitally.
